Dr. Ladson-Billings’ research is in the areas of educational anthropology, cultural studies, multicultural perspectives in education, and critical race theory applications to education.

Join us for a conversation with
Dr. Gloria Ladson-Billings
Thursday, December 1, 2011
MARC Pavilion (2nd floor)
FIU - Modesto Maidique Campus

Pushing Past the Achievement Gap:
The Case for Culturally Relevant Pedagogy

Workshop for students . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 2:30 to 4:00 pm
Featured presentation . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 5:30 to 7:00 pm
Book signing (books can be purchased on site) . . . 7:00 to 7:30 pm

Featured presentation will be streamed live at: http://go.fiu.edu/c2a

This event is sponsored by the UGS Colloquium Initiative and organized by the COE Graduate Colloquium Committee.