THE ADULT EDUCATION & HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT NETWORK: A GLOBAL ELECTRONIC COMMUNITY

New Horizons in Adult Education and Human Resource Development, founded in 1987, is an electronic refereed journal, published quarterly. The journal provides faculty, researchers, graduate students, and practitioners with a venue for publishing their current thinking and research within adult education, human resource development, and related fields.

The mission of New Horizons in Adult Education and Human Resource Development is to promote all aspects of practice and research that explore issues of individual, group, and organizational learning, wherever they may be located and focuses on current research and ideas in adult education, human resource development, and related fields. We are interested in honoring work done in urban, suburban, rural, and international contexts.

New Horizons publishes peer-reviewed articles, Point-Counterpoint essays, Perspectives (on people, practice, research, and teaching) essays, Book and Media Reviews, and News and Notes. The journal is transmitted to subscribers around the world at no fee through the electronic network, aehrdnet@fiu.edu.
